

Lawyer in the Library Program

Kane County Law Library & Self Help Legal Center

Limited Representation Disclaimer

Services Offered:

The self-represented litigant (you) understands that the Lawyer in the Library program is a joint effort of Administer Justice, the Kane County Law Library and members of the Kane County Bar Association. The program's services are limited to legal advice, document preparation, and referrals for Kane County civil cases only. The services provided to you are based on a number of factors including, but not limited to, the lawyer's assessment of the legal matter based on your statements, your expectations, your financial situation and the lawyer's understanding of the law.

Limitations of Services:

The self-represented litigant (you) understands that the Lawyer in the Library program does not provide representation in court and under no circumstance does an Administer Justice or volunteer lawyer guarantee the outcome of any case. You also understand that due to the complexity of certain matters, certain cases are beyond the scope of services that the Lawyer in the Library program provides.

Volunteering lawyers have the right to refuse you service based on the limited scope of their knowledge in a specific area of law, a conflict of interest, rude and/or inappropriate behavior, and /or your abuse of program parameters and policies.

Read and Understood Terms and Conditions of Service:

The self-represented litigant (you) has read the above information and understands the limits and conditions of legal services provided by the Kane County Law Library & Self Help Legal Centers Lawyer in the Library program.
